“FRESH”

Emerging Artists' Exhibition 2005

The 10th Sydney Art on Paper Fair (SAPF) hosts its fourth Emerging Artists' Exhibition “FRESH”, specially celebrated this year by the Print Council of Australia who will award $1000 to one of the selected artists.

FRESH provides a unique opportunity for emerging artists to exhibit and sell their work alongside major Australian and international artists at the only art fair specialising in and promoting works on paper in the South East Asia and Pacific regions.

SAPF invites emerging artists from around Australia to submit works on paper to the Selection Committee to be considered for inclusion in “FRESH”, the SAPF 2005 Emerging Artists' Exhibition.

Entry is open to graduates from 2004 or graduands for 2005, or students currently undertaking postgraduate studies in visual or fine arts at a recognised art school, TAFE college or university in Australia. All eligible artists must use paper as an integral element of their work, including but not limited to: watercolour, drawing, printmaking, photomedia, artists' books and sculpture.

Entries close 5pm EST, Friday May 27, 2005.

Print Council of Australia $1000 Encouragement Award

To celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Sydney Art on Paper Fair, the Print Council of Australia will donate a special Encouragement Award of $1,000. The artists selected for the “FRESH” emerging artists' exhibition, will be eligible for the Award. The aim of the award is to assist an emerging artist in the development of their art on paper practice.

The Print Council of Australia is a national, not for profit, visual arts organisation, which promotes all forms of contemporary works on paper. In its advocacy role, the Print Council aims to widen the audience for works of art on paper. The organisation works to develop further opportunities for both emerging and established artists, and publishes IMPRINT magazine.

The Print Council is pleased to be associated with the Sydney Art on Paper Fair's FRESH exhibition initiative, and its encouragement of emerging artists and their work in the context of an international art fair.
