

SIX EMERGING ARTISTS SELECTED TO EXHIBIT THEIR WORK AT THE FRESH EMERGING ARTISTS STAND SYDNEY ART ON PAPER FAIR 2005

Six artists from around Australia (Victoria, NSW and Western Australia) have been chosen out of a field of 80 applicants to exhibit their art at FRESH, the Emerging Artist Stand at this year's Sydney Art on Paper Fair, July 27 to 31 at Byron Kennedy Hall, Moore Park, Sydney.

The successful applicants are:

Deborah Bain-King	Monash University, Victoria
Pia Larsen	Sydney College of the Arts, NSW
Chris Mc Caughey	National Art School, NSW
Jennie Nayton	Curtin University of Technology, WA
Nikki Ruddy	National Art School, NSW
Court Williams	Sydney College of the Arts, NSW

FRESH provides a unique opportunity for emerging artists to exhibit alongside major Australian and international artists at the SAPF. All selected works may be offered for sale at the Fair.

The FRESH Selection Committee included Anne Ryan, Curator of Australian Prints, Drawings & Watercolours, Art Gallery of New South Wales; Libby Knott, Manager Australian Galleries Sydney and Marianne Hulsbosch, Course Director, Visual Art Education Faculty of Education and Social Work, University of Sydney.

The Print Council of Australia will donate a $1,000 incentive prize, just prior to the opening of the SAPF, to assist an emerging artist in the development of their visual arts practice.

The Sydney Art on Paper Fair (SAPF) is a biennial international art fair. It is the only art fair specialising in and promoting works on paper in the South East Asia and Pacific regions. Leading art galleries, fine art publishers and print workshops from Australia and overseas bring to Sydney the finest selection of original limited-edition prints, watercolours, collages, computer-generated prints, photography, drawings, illustrations and artists' books. SAPF is an unmatched forum for viewing and buying quality works on paper.

The 10th SAPF will be held at the Byron Kennedy Hall, Moore Park, Sydney, from Thursday 28th July to Sunday 31 July 2005.
